ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Metadata related to a plurality of persons is extracted from among electronic data that include information about the persons. The metadata extracted is linked based on a co-occurrence of the information about the persons in the electronic data. Relationship between the persons is displayed graphically based on the metadata linked.